WHAT'S AN INTRAPRENEUR?

An intrapreneur cultivates the mindset, resiliency, and drive of an entrepreneur, and applies it to their current environment. This approach benefits employees at all levels by enhancing their communication, decision making, idea generation, and task execution; all benefits their organization feels as well.

WHO THIS IS FOR

The program is best suited for first-line and mid-level managers whether they are new or more seasoned. In addition, this program can be tailored for aspiring managers as a professional development opportunity.

WHAT YOU'LL GET

This six-month program will cover three foundational areas: people, processes, and perspective. Each month will consist of one training session and one open coaching session to operationalize concepts. Participants will walk away with tangible tools and practices (and a robust workbook) that will set them up for success for years to come. Cohort size is limited to 12 participants, so register today.

PEOPLE

Develop and use your unique voice to elevate communication, enhance relationships, and improve outcomes.

PROCESSES

Incorporate concepts and tools for change management, prioritization, and evaluation to increase capacity and effectiveness.

PERSPECTIVE

Learn models for self-coaching and mind management to create the best results for you and your team.
